VI. VERB + to / VERB + -ing

[14 BE]

Complete the dialogue with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

Tom (A) and a visitor from Japan (B) are in an English pub.

B It's very crowded here. They say that English people are rather anti-social and prefer

.....¹(spend) most of their time at home, but that doesn't seem

.....²(be) true. Do they always have alcoholic drinks?

A Well, I remember people³(drink) a lot some years ago. But things have changed. Now people are beginning⁴(ask) for more non-alcoholic drinks in pubs.

B Why is that?

A People won't give up⁵(use) their cars and today the drinking and driving laws are very strict. People won't risk⁶(break) the law. A lot of them have simply stopped⁷(drink). Let's see if we can manage

.....⁸(find) a table. I'd suggest⁹(have) traditional English food. And we mustn't forget¹⁰(phone) for a taxi in good time. At closing time it will be very difficult. Everybody will be trying¹¹(get) one and I hate¹²(wait) for a taxi outside a pub after closing time. I enjoy

.....¹³(be) at a pub, but I hardly ever stay till closing time.

B I wouldn't mind¹⁴(leave) not too late. After all it's been a long day at the office.
